MOCK Tier 1 MOCK Tier 1 MOCK Tier 1 MOCK Tier 1 TOP 5 Jarace 51/89.75 Hawkins > Keyonte 18/23.40 PACERS TRADE FOR DFS???

1. Spurs	Wemby	PLACED - Scoot 5/150
	Congrats to the Spurs. I'm excited to watch these teams that tanked. They come into the season VERY underrated BECAUSE they were trying to lose! Duh. When we get into the systematic thanking from the Spurs there really are levels to this. It was beyond impressive how consistent the calendar rotation was to ensure that their best five guys never started together. Vassell was vocal on social media prior to last season that they "weren't about the tanking" and their hot start backed it up. So many interchangeable parts here, a lot to be excited about.
2.Hornets (Could	Brandon Miller	PLACED - Miller
(could trade down)	If you are looking to win games, draft Brandon Miller. If you are looking to create one of the best backcourts in the league, draft Scoot Henderson. I bet Miller back when he was +950 to be selected #2 because I knew he was in the mix, and any time you believe that for a pick, take it because this is the NBA Draft and that kind of stuff happensor you can end up betting against your great odds. Scoot probably should be the #2 pick, but a jump in odds for Miller (now at -250 some places)makes Scoot at #2 even harder to believe. This also happened on the exact day Miller worked out for the Hornets.
3. Blazers	Scoot Henderson The best guard in the draft falls to the	PLACED - Scoot PLACED - Jarace the best guard in the dialt fails to the team with one of the best guard cores in the league. You can't draft someone else here because there's a clear floor of Scoot at #3. The question really is WHO do you trade at this point. I say get whatever you can for Anfernee and picks, lock up Dame for the rest of his career, and allow him to mentor Shadeon and Scoot, the backcourt of the future. I highly doubt that happens, NBA Teams make a lot of bad decisions. This is where I start advocating for Jarace Walker. If I'm right, and these teams are wrong, I'll be able to accept that but with almost every team having competent guards, Jarace is the CLEAREST win now player outside of Miller/Wemby. Nobody in this league cares about defense, that's why it's so valuable when someone plays it. Jaden McDaniels is going to be locking people up for years to come GET YOU A GUY THAT CAN DO IT.

4. Raptors Via Houston	Amen Thompson Miller at +1000 is interesting here. Jarace at +2500 is interesting here, but the pick is likely Amen Thompson via Toronto trading up. Getting in my Brian Windhorst conspiracy bag, I cannot comprehend why Houston is targeting every relevant free agent guard, while also stating that there's no gap between the top 3 and Amen. That's not even looking at Houston's roster!! KPJ is apparently not a person anymore EVEN THOUGH he was the only player to show up to Ime Udoka's press conference. Make it make sense. All of this combined and it doesn't even slightly move Rockets fans away from Amen. I'm not necessarily un-advocating for him, but I guess I don't understand why he's so much better than Asaur after watching some OTE games that only makes me think he could fall.	PLACED - Miller WILL PLACE IF Toronto Trades up - Amen

	It's painful to watch stupidity and that is all I can say about Rockets fans. I took my shots with Miller and Jarace, BUT THE REAL PREDICTION is that Toronto trades up and drafts Amen, a situation that actually makes sense. Siakim should be a Rocket, and if he's not, he's likely a Trail Blazer.
5. Pistons	Jarace Walker - Baby Bron. Guards 1-5. It's not a joke. Jarace recently said "I'm tryna see what KD is all about" and it shows how real his impact will be right away. He's ready to lock up anyone in the league. He's a winning player. He's someone any team in this league would want, and would likely get playoff minutes anywhere, today. Denver has Jeff Green running around, they'd give away all their future picks for this guy! I will be baffled if he doesn't go Top 5 and once again will at least KNOW that they messed up if they don't take him. People are in play to trade up for 3 or 4 so there's a lot of options but hey: #3 +7500 #4 +2500 #5 +350 Top 5 Pick +375	PLACED — Jarace
6. Magic	Cam Whitmore I'm a Cam Whitmore hater. When it comes to knowing college basketball I watch as many games as anyone out there, usually with action on them. Cam Whitmore was NEVER that guy. He also had a veteran supporting cast. He couldn't take over when they lost to DePaul and there were so many other disgusting Villanova games. Justin	PLACED - LOVE THIS SPOT

	Moore eventually got healthy and they started winning games, but Cam said BYE. So to see everyone have him over Jararce (someone that actually had the opportunity to play in the NCAA tournament and performed at a high level)I'm simply baffled. Here's what the numbers say BTW
	Rank Name Team OBPR DBPR BPR Off Poss Def Poss Box OBPR I 12 Jarace Walker Houston 3.35 1.92 5.26 1,441 1,424 2.64
	Cam is a freak athlete with a high motor yes, but he's shown zero ability to lead an offense.
7. Pacers	Taylor Hendricks	PLACED - Hendricks
(Looking to trade)	If Jarace Walker is off the board I'm extremely confident that this is the pick.
8. Wizards	Anthony Black	PLACED - Ant Black
	Washington isn't a real organization. They are so far from having a route to compete in a playoff series. With Beal holding this team back with his crazy contract I just have to wonder if Kuz and Porzi actually want to be here. Last year Johnny Davis was selected in a similar spot and somehow I can't confirm that he's a real NBA player up to this point.
	But these reports are real:
	Brad Beal once again in trade rumors and we are hearing that the value of the package will be surprisingly low.
	Washington is looking for a guard here Black is the OBVIOUS CHOICE. They will regret it if they don't do it.
9. Jazz	Asaur Thompson	PLACED - Asaur PLACED - Cam

	This kid is great and has no business being picked outside of the Top 5. But this might be the best draft in NBA history. Again, are we sure it's Amen that's the guy?? I'm not sure if Amen will pop out with Tyrese Halibuton unstoppableness but unless you believe that, Asaur is a great consolation prize. We need to see shooting improvements, but he only hit the game winner (from three) in the OTE Finals I see this as the bailout pick, whatever is left of the clear top 9, and then we move on to the rest of the draft.
10. Mavericks	Derek Lively	PLACED - Lively
	Miller/Walker/Hendricks are all gone. Leonard Miller has some size, but Lively is one of the few real big men in this draft. Given the fact that he's clearly the best, he's going to shoot up the boards. Gradey Dick was the pick here BUT then we randomly had multiple guys putting Lively at 10, and it made perfect sense. So I'll stick with it and by the way it's +1000. Duke was a popular pick to win the Natty for a reason, and I'll say the same thing in the Whitehead section, these were some of the top kids in the class pre season. Obviously we have receipts to back our thinking. I don't mind Lively here even if the pick is traded.
11. Magic	Bilal Coulibaby Missed Under 12.5 and it STINGS. Not being able to parlay draft props is an issue and why you need to have a lot of capital. Remember, it's just one year. Toronto (if they still hold #13) is a great spot for Bilal and it's hard to understand why OKC would want him Doesn't make any sense. But at the same time 11 is certainly in play for Bilal. Him and Cason should both be gone when	Quickly becoming one of the most interesting prospects in the draft. FIRST LOCK. Reports Fascinating stuff. Aside from Wemby, this is the first LOCK of the draft it gets to #14 regardless.

12. OKC Thunder	GRADEY DICK is perfect here. But Leonard Miller is also in play as a good fit for OKC
13. Toronto	Cason Wallace
	Cason Wallace on this roster makes it a scary defense. His ceiling is obviously the best defensive guard in the league and that's certainly someone everyone would wanna have. Marcus Smart has been to 4 of 5 Eastern Conference Finals for god's sake!!
14. Pelicans	Brice Sensebaugh.	Scorer with high upside.
	Similar to my issues with Whitmore, Brice did not do a lot to impact winning at the college level. For Brice, it's largely due to his defense, but if any team has a counter to that and needs offensive upside it's clearly the Pels.	"High level interest"
	I love twitter spaces and one of my big takeaways from them is that this kid is great. The shooting EFFICIENCY is a little bit different.
15. Hawks	People in a Twitter space made me question reality when I got laughed out of the room for saying JHS is better than Nick Smith. Shit like that is why I'm so tight knit, believe in your opinion. JHS is a great guard and MAN Toronto needs one. Do we want to see Nick Smith running around shooting threes or the guy that could be the point guard of the future.	Nick Smith
16. Jazz	Kobe Bufkin	Kobe Bufkin. Interviewed GG.
	J Poole 2.0 seems too obvious but that's who this seems to be, maybe a much better defender
17. Lakers	Jordan Hawkins	Worked out Maxwell Lewis. Interviewed GG.
(PACERS VIA TRADE)	Dreamed about it through the title	WORKED OUT LEONARD

	run, here we are. He's a Laker.	MILLER
18. Heat	JHS is a great consolation prize for the Heat. There's nobody I'd rather have run my second unit. Welcome to the HEAT CULTURE.	JHS
19. Golden State		LOVE IT
20. Houston	JETT HOWARD PROMISE??	LOCK #2
21. Brooklyn	Dariq Whitehead	I see this man falling in the draft. Bufkin, JHS, and NCAA Champion Jordan Hawkins all seem like players easier to integrate into a team. George seemed as if he was always supposed to be the #1 option on a team but we saw how that worked out at Baylor and we see how he's fallen already even if it isn't this extreme. If BKN keeps these picks they are taking a guard, and he would be best available along with the names listed above.
22. Brooklyn	Noah Clowney
23. Portland	Ben Shepherd	Worked out Colby Jones. Needed size should help!
24. Kings	Maxwell Lewis	WING SIZE. Rayan Rupert
25. Grizzlies	Kris Murray FLOOR Hoping he finds his way to Sacramento to play with his brother, but someone could snatch up his talents prior to that. A shooter that can guard big, sign me up. Less of a project than some of the lower wings, but less potential. This is the part of the draft when contenders are making their selections remember?	Dariq Whitehead Kobe Bufkin Rayan Rupert Colby Jones

26. Pacers (LAKERS VIA TRADE)	GG Jackson A common theme of the workouts is that everyone wants to play for the Pacers, and that's for very good reason.	PACERS ARE HIGH ON HIM
27. Hornets	Keyonte George
28. Jazz	Andre Jackson	Worked out colby jones
29. Pacers	Sidy Sissoko
30. Clippers	James Nnaji	This class lacks size, and here is one of the few that can fill a real need for some teams.
31. Pistons	Marcus Sasser	Coined by me BABY CURRY is an established, hard working, lights out shooter that will give you plenty of production on the defensive end.
		Baby Bron and Baby Curry one the same team??
32. Pacers (LAKERS VIA TRADE)	Jamie Jacquez
33. Spurs	Jordan Walsh	Pure hooper. Shifty, shot maker, what more do you want? I'd love to see Jordan as the last guy in the rotation on a contending team.
34. Hornets
35. Celtics	Mike Miles Jr	This is a beautiful draft. I'd give Mike Miles the SHOT-MAKER some NBA run, but throw this guy in the G League and let him win an MVP and a ring, then he should be ready.
36. Magic	Isaiah Wong	A winner. As an Isaiah Wong fan and believer he impressed me in the NCAA
